

Dallas-area nonprofits want to boost lagging Hispanic representation on boards

Nov 21, 2010

Dallas-area nonprofits want to boost lagging Hispanic representation on boards

The Dallas Morning News

August 28, 2010

"Hispanic volunteers on nonprofit boards are highly sought after these days.

"More social service agencies are serving a greater number of Latinos in this struggling economy. But conversely, the number of Latinos serving on nonprofit boards is stagnating.

"And this has caused a level of concern at many agencies that believe they need to reflect the community they serve."