

P. Buckley Moss Foundation supports arts integration for special learners

Aug 23, 2012

Grants are available from the P. Buckley Moss Foundation to support programs that utilize arts integration to inform alternative teaching strategies for students who learn in different ways. The deadline to submit a proposal is September 30th, 2012. To read about last year's award recipients, and to download an application, visit:

<http://mossfoundation.org/national-educators-awards-and-grants>